DUMBA IS TO BE RECALLED

Without Any Quibbling. United States Would Not be Satisfied With Just His Departure.

Washington, Sept. 28.—Austria has informally notified Ambassador Penfield that it will recall Dr. Dumba, the Austrian Ambassador to the United States as requested by President Wilson.

This information was given to Ambassador Penfield when he informally advised Austrian officials, on instructions from Washington, that the United States sought the "recall" of Dr. Dumba and would not be satisfied with his departure on leave of absence.

Mr. Penfield was assured that the wishes of the United States would be complied with and that a formal note on the subject would be handed to him soon. Until the formal expression is in the hands of State Department officials say they cannot act upon the Ambassador's request for safe conduct.

Dr. Dumba had engaged passage on the steamship Rotterdam, due to sail September 29th, but it is not known whether arrangements can be made in time for him to leave on that date.

Officials here refuse to comment on the situation, making it clear that such information as they had received was of an informal nature given in conversation and that the decision of Austria is expressed in a note would be awaited.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

We learn there are to be two tickets in the field for election in this fall as follows: J. A. Stephens, J. V. Stone, Harry Paris, Frank Dicks, W. O. Tucker, Charles D. Haynes, which will be the first contest.

Those whose names are on the second ticket are: J. H. Nimmo, G. W. Yates, T. A. Rankin, J. N. Boston, A. H. Reed, Dr. J. R. Perry.

The five or six present twelve good men and true Marion possessors of an honest vote could be made in voting for any one of the gentlemen or for either ticket as a whole. The position is one of considerable responsibility, small pay and little thanks, and no member of the acting board cared to enter the race. They have made conscientious public servants and have done their full duty at all times.

State Sunday School Convention to be Held in Louisville Oct. 7-10

Our State Sunday School convention will be held in Louisville Oct. 7th, 8th, 9th and 10th. We would like for every school in the county to send at least one or more delegates—especially send two boys or girls to the older boys and girls "conference". We want our county to show up her work—so will you please see that your school makes a report. All schools who have not made an offering for the work will you please send an offering at once, as we are behind with our state and county. All interested in going to the State convention will you please write or telephone me at once. Thanking you in advance I am yours for better Sunday School. E. F. Dean.

GERMAN LOSSES GROW HEAVIER

French-British Forces Relentlessly Attacking Foes.—Present Struggle Most Bloody of the War.

London, Sept. 28.—The great offensive of French and British forces against both sides of the elbow joint of German positions on the western front has not slackened, but General Joffery in a bulletin this afternoon reported no new outstanding success.

The British official statement told briefly of heavy losses inflicted on the Germans northwest of Hulluch, where heavy German counter attacks were carried out during the day. Berlin maintains that by means of counter-attacks, the allies' drives have been checked with heavy losses, but as the Germans make no claims of recovery of ground taken from them, the indications are that the Allies' gains of Saturday and Sunday have been generally maintained and at some points improved, and that the fighting reaches the stage of vicious attacks and counter attacks which may persist for weeks.

It is estimated that the prisoners captured by the allies during the rush of total more than 25,000, but this is somewhat offset by German claims that nearly 7,000 French and British have been taken. English, eagerly awaiting further news of the great battle is warned to expect heavy losses, and that the Germans, already 2,000,000 strong, may throw heavy reinforcements into the line of struggle, the like of which even this bloody war has not seen.

CLYDE GREEN'S TRAGIC DEATH

Fell Into The Clinch River From A Pier Forty-Two Feet High.

J. R. White, who married Miss Eula Clement, of Fords Ferry, and who is foreman of the gang of workmen building the bridge where Clyde Green met his death, wrote to Dan Green, the father of the deceased, that Clyde fell from a pier 42 feet high into the Clinch river, near Clinton, Tenn., and was drowned before he could be rescued although only in the water 20 minutes. These are all the details of the death which we have obtained and it clears up the matter somewhat.

REVIVAL CONTINUES.

The special evangelistic services at the Main Street Presbyterian church are continuing with considerable interest. Evangelist Bell is preaching twice daily and the messages are drawing large crowds from all the churches of the city. A number have already accepted Christ as their Savior.

The street meetings are now in Marion but are drawing hundreds of people who listen intently to the proclaimed gospel. Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock Evangelist Bell will speak in the courthouse yard. Special music will have a prominent part in that service.

Sunday, the campaign will close. There will be the morning meeting at 11 o'clock, and the regular evening service at 7:30. In addition a special gathering for men only at 3 o'clock. The subject of this sermon will be "Crops." Every man in the town and community is especially urged to be present at that meeting.

Meetings this week daily at 10:00 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

EXPERT CAR- PET CLEANER

Here—Mr. George H. Crosby of Memphis, Tenn. Doing Some Splendid Work

Mr. George H. Crosby of Memphis, Tenn., has been here for the past two weeks, working at his profession, that of cleaning and renovating carpets, druggists and rugs. His work has not only been satisfactory but has been in the nature of a revelation to our housekeepers. Old carpets after being cleaned by his process look like new and are fresh and pretty all the colors being brought out as clear and bright as when first woven. The putting down of a carpet, that work so much dreaded by the men, is the one thing at which Mr. Crosby is an expert, putting them down as smooth as the "paper on the wall."

The biggest contracts Mr. Crosby has had so far here, were at the First Presbyterian church and at the Main St. Presbyterian church, under the direction of the Ladies Aid Societies, both being delighted with his work.

The Balanced Ration

One of the most forcible examples of the differences that comes from using the balanced ration in opposition to the "old man's method," as Mr. Kercher styles it, is shown in the entry of Ross Brothers, two young Jefferson county boys. The boys took two pigs from a litter and the father a third one. The 3 are in the same pen.

The one raised on corn by the father weighs a little more than fifty pounds, while the two raised by the boys tip the scales at more than 100 pounds each, the sons know that it cost them 4c to produce their pigs while the father does not know what his runt cost.

Ernest Minner, of Marion, Crittenden county, has a pig on display which shows he knows the business and that he can make money on porkers. The pig is now a little more than six months old and weighs 175 lbs. and is valued at $40. He bought it from his father for 5c a pound when it was two months old.

He has not only this book profit, but the pig won first class at the Crittenden county fair, a registered Jersey bull calf, and second prize in the second class, $1.50; and also won a free trip to the State Fair. Ernest is one of the proudest boys on the ground. —Louisville Herald.

HIGH SCHOOL CON- TINUES TO GROW

Over One Hundred Enrolled: New Pupils Enrolling Every Week.

The High School continues to grow in interest and attendance, and the outlook for a successful year's work is very promising. All the school people of the town are enthusiastic over the prospects and the Record-Press predicts that this will be "A Banner Year for M. H. S."

There are 106 enrolled to date and several others will enter school within the next week or two. There are twenty-seven County High School people enrolled. These one-hundred and more young people are going after things in a way which will mean much to themselves and to the school.

On Friday afternoon, Sept 17th two literary societies were organized, and these two bodies of noble and earnest young men and women will be prominent factors in the work this year. The officers of the societies for the year are as follows:

BIG GASOLINE CAR EXPLODES

Over A Hundred Meet Death In Ardmore, Okla., Tragedy.

Ardmore, Okla., Sept. 27. At least twenty persons were killed it is estimated, and two hundred others were injured seriously here there this afternoon when a two-hundred-and-fifty barrel tank car of gasoline exploded in the heart of the business district. Force of the explosion shook down many buildings and threw burning gasoline in every direction, and a few minutes later Ardmore was at the mercy of a score of fires. At eight o'clock the fires were under control and the city under martial law.

Private homes were immediately thrown open to the injured and scores of men are working in the smoldering ruins along Main street searching for additional victims. Not a building along Main street escaped either as a result of the force of the explosion or the fires following. All school buildings, business houses and residences within twelve blocks of the business district bear evidences of the explosion.

Two workmen were repairing the tank at 2:30 this afternoon and one of them struck it a blow with a hammer. A spark from the blow ignited fumes escaping through a small leak, then there was a terrific explosion followed by many smaller ones. The workmen were blown to pieces. The shock scattered burning gasoline over the Ardmore railroad station, used by the Santa Fe, Frisco and Rock Island railroads, and the Rock Island freight station and scores of other buildings quickly took fire from the burning liquid.

SHOPPERS CRUSHED

Fifty persons or more are believed crushed or burned to death while pinned under debris in stores, wholesale houses and the Ardmore railroad station.

Among the ruins proceeds to the work tonight, the workers centering their efforts on a mass of lumber and brick that had been a department store, where it was feared many bodies of girl and women shoppers and employees will be found.

New Offices of Home Telephone Company.

The new offices of the Marion Home Telephone Co., on the second floor of the Bruce Babb block, next door to the Farmer's Bank, are indeed spacious and well appointed and comprise the entire floor except one room, occupied by Belt & Yates.

The new switch board is a marvel of accuracy and ingenuity and will enable the operators to be more prompt and efficient, if possible, in the future than in the past.

The transfer from the James' block to the new quarters has taken a month, but has been done without interruption of service or inconvenience to the patrons.

The management will keep open house, we presume, at some early date and Manager Black will appear in a full dress suit and Miss May Cook, the cashier, will preside with ease and dignity at the punch bowl, and Walter and Elzie will pass around the barbecue and other dainties.

MARION GIRL ENTHUSIASTIC

Over Land of Sunshine and Flowers.
—Miss Mary Finley Writes
Interesting Letter From
Los Angeles

Los Angeles Cal.,
Sept. 18th, 1915.

Mr. S. M. Jenkins,
Marion, Ky.,

Dear Editor:

I have seen, in our county paper, the letters from friends who were sojourning in California: truly a grand state and a land of sunshine and flowers. I, too, have been having the time of my life here, since the first week in August.

I went to Memphis, Tenn., the 3rd, of August where I was met by my dear cousin, Mrs. T. J. Latham. We took in the business portion of that city the next morning and that afternoon, Wednesday, we started for the Golden West on the Sunset Limited. Traveled thro' Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, New Mexico and Arizona, passing immense cotton and sugar cane fields, thro' forests covered with the gray moss, thro' prairies and thro' desert lands with the cacti growths.

We arrived in the beautiful and wonderful city of Los Angeles on Saturday night, spent the night at Westlake Hotel and came to my sisters', Mrs. J. H. Terry's, the next day. She has a lovely little home with all modern conveniences and a pretty yard with beautiful flowers, fig trees, peaches and grapes. My brother-in-law, Henry Terry, has a good position with Southern Pacific R. R. Co., and makes a good salary.

While here, have been with many good Kentuckians and Memphians. My first trip out of the city was to Duarte, about twenty-one miles from the city on an electric car line. There I visited Mr. and Mrs. Louis Terry. These good people live on a beautiful place with a large grove of oranges, lemons and grape fruit back of the house. Here I was turned loose to gather real orange blossoms and eat all the golden balls I wished to.

In this little village I saw the packing house of "Sunkist" fruit we all like so well at home. I went to the Methodist church there and who should the preacher be but a real live Crittenden county man, Rev. Jack Milligan, who wanted to know all about the Marion people. He introduced me to his car and invited me for a ride to see the beautiful orange groves.

Another Kentuckian whom I have met is Mrs. Kos Clement, who has a beautiful bungalow in Hollywood, an aristocratic part Los Angeles. She has a daughter who is cashier of the First National Bank of Hollywood and Mr. Clement is doing well.

My first trip to the ocean was hugely enjoyed. My brother-in-law took his family and myself with a large lunch to San Pedro on the Pacific Electric; here we took a boat, "Music," and traveled about twenty miles on the majestic Pacific to Long Beach, here we ate lunch on the beach and afterwards donned bathing suits and went in surf bathing and afterwards in the plunge.

The next Kentuckians I saw, my sister, her children and myself went to spend the day with Mrs. Mary Cox, Nee Dorr. When we arrived there we surely felt like we had gotten back to Kentucky for who should be the first one to greet us but Ann Eliza Johnson. Mesdames Dick Dorr, Sr., Betty Dorr Wilson and three of Mrs. Dorr's grandchildren were there also. We certainly enjoyed our day, talking, singing and of course "the eats." The Dorr's all have pretty homes and are getting along fine.

Other places of interest I have been to are the Chamber of Commerce, which has exhibits of fruits, vegetables, minerals, etc., from all counties of California. A lovely car drive with the Bridges, Memphians, thro' Ely, San Park, Griffith Park, Hollywood and to Venice, one of the most noted places of interest on the beach. I have been to Eastlake Park and Zelig Zoo, Westlake Park and to the theatres. The "Clatsop" is truly great and especially to a Daughter of the Confederacy.

Will yet go to San Diego and San Francisco. While Kentucky is my home and I love the dear old native state, I can truly say that there are more advantages here and it is the most beautiful country I have ever lived in. Hail! to the "Golden Gate" of the West.

Yours respectfully,

MARY HELEN FINLEY.

New I. C. Branch.

There is a promising project on foot to induce the I. C. R. R. to build a line from Dawson to Madisonville. Two-thirds of the way there is already a coal line track, and from statements in both the Dawson and Madisonville papers there would not be over six miles of line to build to complete the connection. Such a line would open up much undeveloped coal lands and also give the I. C. a chance at the great coal mines right at Madisonville. —Paducah News Democrat.

The Bravest Battle.

The bravest battle that ever was fought,
Shall I tell you where and when?
On the maps of the world you will find it not,
It was fought by the mothers of men,
Nay, not cannon or battleshot,
With sword or nobler pen;
Nay, not with eloquent word or thought
From mouths of wonderful men,
But deep in a walled-up woman's heart
Of woman that would not yield;
But patiently, silently bore her part—
Lo! there is that battlefield,
No marching troop, no bayonet song;
No banner to gleam and wave;
And oh! there battles they last so long
From bed to bed to the grave!
Yea, faithful stal as a bridge of stars,
She fights in her walled-up town—
Fights on and on in the endless wars,
Then silent, unseen—goes down.
—Joquin Miller.

"What's your hurry?"
"My fire insurance expires at noon!"
"What company are you in?"
"I don't bother about details."
"Ever take notes from your customers?"
"Sometimes."
"Ever take a note without knowing the name of the man who made it?"
"Well, I guess not!"
"What is a note, anyway?"
"A promise to pay."
"What's a fire insurance policy?"
"I get you! A promise to pay if you have a fire."
"Exactly. You're paying good money for a promise to pay without knowing the name of the company that promises!"
"Say, what company are you in?"
"The panic-proof Hartford Fire Insurance Company. A company that has promptly settled every honest loss for 105 years."
May we show YOU a Hartford policy? Costs no more than others.

JUDGE CLEM NUNN

Delivered Splendid Address at Cadiz On Illiteracy.

We wish every citizen of Trigg county could have heard the splendid address of Judge Clem S. Nunn, of Marion, delivered here on last County Court day upon the adult illiteracy of Kentucky and Trigg county. Judge Nunn was sent here under the auspices of the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission, which is doing much to eliminate illiteracy from Kentucky.

He was introduced by County Farm Agent Varney in a very appropriate manner. Judge

Nunn prefaced his remarks by declaring that Kentucky's hospitality was unequalled by that of any other state in the Union, and that our greatest need now to place us in the front ranks of our more progressive sister states was to eliminate the illiteracy among our adults. He called upon our teachers, trustees and citizens generally to join forces in a united effort to learn every woman and man in Trigg county how to read and write through the medium of the "moonlight schools," which are doing more along this line than any other one thing in the state.

Judge Nunn was accompanied here by Mrs. Nunn and Miss

Look Out For Your Hens As Winter Weather Comes On.

In the current issue of Farm and Fireside a contributor tells the following story as a warning to take care of hens from now on until winter.

"Last winter our hens just about dried up on us. We gave them the best care we possibly could after winter set in, but all through the months when eggs were bringing the most, and feed was the highest we brought in practically no eggs at all. When you think what it means to care for 700 or 800 hens that way, seeing the money go out and not a cent coming back you can imagine that we were pretty blue.

"But we have found out what was the trouble. We hatched a fine lot of pullets a year ago and were sure they would be right 'on deck' with their eggs through the winter season, but they too went back on us. The why of this was that we were busy about other things and did not get our pullets in out of the trees and odd places where they had been roosting, until all of a sudden there came a cold snap. They were thoroughly chilled.

"Then, too, on account of that same having 'so much else to do,' the old hens were neglected in the fall and did not go into winter quarters as they should. Add to this fact that we did not send away the old hens in the fall as we ought to, and you have the secret of our loss."

A Letter From Buena, Washington.

Buena, Wash., Sept. 26, 1915

Record-Press and Dear Marshall: I promised you and others to send back a few notes on the West and what I have seen.

The west is a wonderful country in spots but these spots are too few to accommodate all who are trying to get in here.

The percent of good tillable land in the west is very small. The majority of it is rough, hilly and dry, not even good timber unless it is on a water shed from some snow peak. The rest is in little scrubby growth called sage brush which seems to be the only thing that exists on the most of this dry soil.

I am in the center of a 60,000 acre irrigation project, which runs along the Yakima river, while on each side of us in plain view are those dry parched hills. But where this can be irrigated it is the richest soil I have ever seen and the most wonderful crops grown on it. Unfortunately for the people too much of it was set to orchards in the beginning, which are being chopped out now for other crops. Should all the orchards set be left to grow it would be impossible for the railroads to handle in several years with their other business. This fruit stuff has to nearly all go east and is controlled by eastern prices—the freight is $300. to $350. a car, so when the prices come from the east and the freight is deducted it looks better here in alfalfa and cattle, which are fast coming to the front. They cut 8 tons and over of hay per acre on well watered land, and let a good crop stand case is to be entered in fifteen on the ground for winter pasture lots, of cattle are shipped in here by the packers to be wintered and ready for the early spring markets.

There was a community fair here this week, one day confined to our school district which was equal to a great many county fairs. There was a good display of all kinds of farm products and stock and poultry, etc.

The State fair will come off this week at North Yakima, a city of 18,000 population, 16 miles from here. I am on a branch line of the Union Pacific railroad, which runs up through the fruit belt to haul out fruit and hay to their main line, and the Northern Pacific has a branch line beside it for 50 miles, which connects with their main line which runs by within three miles of us.

There are lots of Kentuckians around here, none seem to want to go back and some are doing well.

We can see two big mountains from here. They are covered with snow and the cool air comes down of a night and makes sleeping fine. I will give you another letter later, on what I see in the future for growing fruits back there and the kinds to plant.

I sell tickets for the Rail Road and keep a store in the depot at one of the biggest shipping points. Resp't,

W. L. Adams.

Abstinence Alphabet

A modern alphabetical psalm on the virtue of total abstinence is furnished by Dr. Cyrus Edison to a recent North American Review. It is one of the best essays of its kind in print:

A stands for Alcohol; death-like its grip.

B for Beginner, who takes just one sip.

C for Companion, who urges him on.

D for the Demon of drink that is born.

E for Endeavor, he makes no resist.

F stands for friends, who so loudly insist.

G for Guilt he afterwards feels

H for the Horrors that hang at his heels.

I his Intention to drink not at all.

J stands for Jeerings that follow his fall.

K for his Knowledge that he is a slave.

L stands for Liquors his appetite craves.

M for convivial Meetings so gay.

N stands for No that he tries hard to say.

O for the Orgies that then come to pass.

P stands for Pride that he drowns in his glass.

Q for the Quarrels that nightly abound.

S stands for Sights that his vision bedim.

T stands for Trembling that seizes his limbs.

U for his Usefulness sunk in the slums.

V for the Vagrant he quickly becomes.

W for Waning of life that's soon done.

X for his eXit regretted by none.

Yonths of this nation, such weakness is crime,

Zealously turn from the tempter in time!

ARLINGTON MERCHANT FEELS BETTER

Friedrich Redeker, a business man of Arlington, Ill., was a victim of stomach and digestive troubles. He went to a hospital for an operation for another trouble. When he recovered from the operation he found his stomach trouble, worse and his heart affected.

He took May's Wonderful Remedy. He got his appetite back and gained in strength right away. He wrote:

"I owe you some words of congratulation for your stomach remedy. I could not eat anything but soft food and the bloating from gas got so bad that at one time I had a fainting spell for three hours. I went to one of your Chicago drug stores and got your remedy. I took the remedy and the next morning was relieved. I am getting stronger and can eat anything that comes along."

May's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your Druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

BLOCKADED

Every Household In Marion Should Know How To Resist It.

If your back aches because the kidneys are blocked, You should help the kidneys with their work. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for weak kidneys. Recommended by thousands—here's testimony from this vicinity. Luther Hays, Cobb, Ky., says: I became afflicted with kidney trouble, the first symptom being a tenderness through my sides and loins. A short time after I noticed acute pains in my back and through the muscles of my limbs. I attributed the trouble to a cold or strain, but as it did not wear off, I came to the conclusion that my kidneys were affected. A friend who had suffered in a similar way advised me to try Doan's Kidney pills and I did so. They relieved me promptly. Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Hays had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. 92330

MARRIAGE

Of Former Kentuckians In New York City Last Saturday.

Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Fannie Steele and Mr. Anderson Woods, the marriage to take place in the parlor of the Murray Hill Hotel, in New York City on Saturday, Sept. 25th.

The bride-to be is the daughter of Mrs. Nannie Steele, of this city, and for a number of years was one of Caldwell county's most successful school teachers and is a popular young lady. She has been living in New York for a number of years, but frequently visited her old home, her last visit here being in February of this year.

Mr. Woods formerly lived in Marion, Ky., and is well known throughout this section.

Immediately after the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Woods will go to the St. George Hotel, Brooklyn, where they will remain until their apartment in Adelphi Court, is ready for occupancy.—Princeton Leader.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the best remedy for dyspepsia and other diseases of the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition. When these diseases are cured, the whole body shares in the increased strength derived from food properly digested and perfectly assimilated.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is also free from alcohol and injurious drugs. You can take it and be certain you will find it a true blood purifier, tissue-builder, and restorative nerve tonic and that it will produce no real after-effect. Thousands in Kentucky—probably many of your own neighbors—are willing to recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery because it has made them stronger in body, brain and nerve.

You can get Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in tablet or liquid form from dealers in medicine, or send 50 cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for a package of tablets by mail.
